

The Jungle Sound of Duke Ellington: exotic and exciting, mysterious and menacing, seductive yet sinister. Growling trumpet, howling saxophone, wailing clarinet and incanting trombone, all characteristic of this fabulous style of jazz, heard at its heyday at the Cotton Club in New York's Harlem District in the late 20s and early 30s.

now brought to you by the

HARLEM MEER CATS

six of the finest early jazz specialists in London

Listen out for

Echoes of the Jungle, East St-Louis Toodle-oo, Jubilee Stomp, The Mooche, Jungle Nights in Harlem, Mood Indigo, Old Man Blues, Black and Tan Fantasy, Concerto for Cootie, Echoes of Harlem and many many more great hits!

Live at the famous

HOLST HALL

only £12 (£10 concessions)
for details visit dulwichfestival.co.uk

Sit back and enjoy the sounds, take advantage of the bar, or even bring your dancing shoes and Lindy Hop the night away!